Resumption of Burials in the Churchyard surrounding All Saints' Church, Terling, Feedback form

We will be pleased to receive your views on the plan to resume burials in the Churchyard Surrounding All Saints' Church.

Information about the plan is available in the church, in the Parish News and on the Terling and Fairstead Community website.

You are welcome to submit your views anonymously, but if you would like us to answer any questions you have, please leave contact details at the bottom of the form.

Thank you for your time and interest.

Terling Parochial Church Council

	Yes	No
Do you think it is a good idea to resume burials in the churchyard surrounding All Saints' Church – please tick one box

Is there anything you think we should be doing or changing in our plans for the churchyard?

If there is anything you would like us to discuss with you, please outline your concerns and include contact details ('phone number, email address, etc) below.

Please us the back of this form if you need more space

Please place your feedback form in the box near this display
Thank You.